

Through the Magic of the Light

Words by Edlaina Selman and Howard B. Richman
Music by Howard B. Richman

In the quiet of the night
When you can barely cope
It dances as it comes
A gentle roar of hope
Stop and listen, hold it tight
Your dreams indeed come true
Let the story now rewrite

Hold your stone, make a wish
It's so much bigger than you know
Miracles can happen
It's time to let it show

Lift the darkness with the light
To see what's underneath
Revealing ages past
Wipe clean, the darkest sheath
Take a look with all your might
You now can really see
Hidden truth displays so bright
